

Rudolph (Rudy) Garcia is a highly rated attorney who has served for decades as a court-appointed and private mediator, arbitrator and judge pro tempore for matters pending in federal and state courts. In those capacities, he has successfully resolved nearly every case. Since retiring from a large firm at the end of 2015, Rudy has limited his practice to such service as a neutral, in mediations, arbitrations and administrative hearings.

Before leaving his large-firm practice to concentrate on alternative dispute resolution, Rudy engaged in a wide variety of complex civil litigation for nearly 40 years, in such areas as antitrust, securities, banking, construction, intellectual property, education, insurance and telecommunications, including numerous jury trials, bench trials and arbitrations in federal and state courts. Some of Rudy's representative matters were:

- Winning one of the largest jury verdicts in the country and the largest in Pennsylvania, according to The National Law Journal, in a federal antitrust case involving the electronic article surveillance industry;
- Representing the Independent Examiner under an SEC Consent Order in an investigation of accounting issues at a Fortune 50 company;
- Successfully litigating and resolving an intellectual property claim seeking more than $1 billion in the lighting controls industry;
- Successfully litigating and resolving an $800 million avoidance claim on behalf of a creditors committee for an insurance conglomerate debtor; and
- Successfully litigating dozens of cases for wireless service providers and tower companies under the Telecommunications Act of 1996.
